LOCAL GOVERNMENT AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT DEPARTMENT

CIRCULAR NO: LGCD-BR-2017-R12

SUBJECT: Procedure for Delayed Birth Registration at Union Council
Level

1. PURPOSE

This circular prescribes the documents required and the approving authority for delayed birth registration (LBR) applications submitted through the Union Council Secretary.

2. REQUIRED DOCUMENTS FOR DELAYED BIRTH REGISTRATION

For children aged 1 to 7 years, the applicant must submit Form A along with the parents CNIC copies, a hospital or Lady Health Worker certificate if available, and an affidavit confirming the date of birth. For children over 7 years of age, an additional affidavit from two witnesses and a school certificate, if the child is enrolled, are required along with Form A.

3. APPROVING AUTHORITY

The Assistant Director Local Government (ADLG) of the concerned Tehsil is the approving authority for all delayed birth registration cases forwarded by the Secretary Union Council. No delayed registration certificate shall be issued without the ADLG written approval recorded on Form A.

4. PROCESSING TIMELINE

The Secretary Union Council must forward every delayed birth registration application to the ADLG within seven working days of receipt. The ADLG must record a decision, approval or rejection, within fourteen working days of receiving the forwarded application.

5. NIKAH REGISTRATION CROSS REFERENCE

Nikah registration is a separate process governed by the Muslim Family Laws Ordinance 1961 and is not covered under this circular. Secretaries should refer married applicants above 18 years of age to the Nikah Registrar for that Union Council.

6. COMPLIANCE

All Secretary Union Councils and ADLGs are directed to acknowledge receipt of this circular through the UC Governance Platform Knowledge Centre within seven days of publication.

Issued by order of the Secretary, Local Government and Community Development Department, Government of the Punjab.
